. From humble beginnings in 2K as a 2K MAME cabinet, we have now come to our 25th anniversary of creating the most popular and longest running website for Hacking/Modding news and entertainment in the community. We thank all of you who have made the 25 year journey with us! - we have had many ups and downs, but we are still here and plan to stick around for a long time yet! We, like you, love all of the games, hardware, and hardware mods out there! Each of us, whether are kids, teens, adults, or grandparents, have played and will play many of the games we are telling you about! - You are why we keep doing this, if you have an idea or would like to see us add something to our collection, drop us a comment here or email us @ bbdor m@ cbs gmail. com!

Thanks again, Note 2: We have now moved to our own domain: www.supposedlymagic.com - The old version can be found HERE - Link removed. The redirect was too long, sorry about that! If you want the old URL, just click here and change it to the old one. Infused with the core features of Max Payne 3, this Premium Mod offers full-on mod support for the most important aspects of the game. This mod contains the following: This mod starts at game-over when Max first wakes up and continues all the way to the ending. See NOTE 2 below. IMPORTANT NOTE TO ZERODANDROFF There are two endings to this mod (see below). What you do with them depends on what you have played through before. Overview: . After Max wakes up from a four year coma, he immediately needs money to survive. The only place he can get it is in Liberty City, but it is under the control of The Pandemic Alliance (or Panda as they are referred to as), a group of mercenary soldiers. The mission to rescue a close friend and also have the money to survive ends up resulting in a much more intense and fast-paced experience than any Max Payne 3 mod released so far. But the mission comes with risks; The Pandemic Alliance is not an all-for-one organization, and they do not need their victims for anything more than money. Visit the mod's Discord server to join us for a chat and voice channel during installation. We will
